

International Division
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

The following locations are ineligible for DDRA research for the AY 2025 application cycle; this information is from the 2025 Fulbright-Hays Maintenance Amounts list available in the G6/G5 system (once you've initiated an application):

CLOSED COUNTRIES:

|                                  |                       |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Belarus                          | Korea, North          |
| Bhutan                           | Lebanon               |
| Burkina Faso                     | Liberia               |
| Burma/Myanmar                    | Libya                 |
| Central African Republic         | Mali                  |
| Chad                             | Mauritania            |
| China                            | Nicaragua             |
| Comoros Islands                  | Niger                 |
| Cuba                             | Oman                  |
| Democratic Republic of the Congo | Russia                |
| Djibouti                         | Sao Tome and Principe |
| Equatorial Guinea                | Seychelles            |
| Eritrea                          | Somalia               |
| Gabon                            | South Sudan           |
| Gambia                           | Sudan                 |
| Guinea-Bissau                    | Syria                 |
| Haiti                            | Ukraine               |
| Hong Kong                        | Venezuela             |
| Iran                             | Yemen                 |
| Iraq                             |                       |

PARTIALLY CLOSED COUNTRIES (some areas, primarily large cities, allowed):

Turkey – closed EXCEPT FOR work in Ankara & Istanbul

QUESTIONABLE COUNTRIES/PROPOSAL:

Israel – please contact your project director (Mark Lilleleht, uwfulbright@wisc.edu) if you are considering proposing work in Israel for the current cycle

Last updated: October 30, 2024

Office of the Vice Provost & Dean